Kalos Orisate!

Cyprus isn't the only place in the world where you can take blue skies, sparkling waters, miles of beaches and sun-drenched days for granted.

But it is absolutely the only Mediterranean island where Aphrodite was born, Richard the Lionhearted was married and Shakespeare set Othello.

Let us introduce you to an island that is large enough to offer groups limitless choice and space, but small enough to allow visitors to experience a sense of familiarity and place. Whether you most enjoy exploring archaeological sites and museum hopping or perhaps you are a nature lover or outdoor sports enthusiast, the clean air and golden light will equally impress. So will the partially non-existent crime level and the heartfelt Cypriot welcome you are sure to enjoy. Let's take a tour of the major's towns and their outlying districts and point out some high lights you don't want to miss along the way. It's easy to see how well both the layout of the island, and the rich history and culture, lend it to incentive ideas and conference fun.      How To Reach UsOrokliniNicosiaLimassolLarnacaPaphosTroodos
